There is no inconsistency. Some students were allotted seats but they did not come. There are still some vacancies.

Mr. Mahomed Imam.—

Out of 150 applications it is stated that only 50 were given seats. What has become of the rest?

I am not able to say. Many did not join. Some 16 seats are still available and I cannot say what became of the others who were given seats.

Evidently some who were allotted seats did not join.

Second Member of Council.—

We know that there were vacancies.

Mr. H. C. Dasappa.—

Is it not on account of the higher charges of boarding?

Second Member of Council.—

If boarding charges are high, that is because the students want a high style of living.

Is it not necessary to keep down the cost?

Second Member of Council.—

It lies with the students themselves.

Why not revert to the old arrangement so as to facilitate more students joining the hostel?
